

Platelet Rich Plasma Treatment Risks and Contraindications

POTENTIAL RISKS

Dr. Jernigan and his team will further expound on potential risks based on your medical history prior to treatment.

- Hematoma
- Infection
- Nerve damage
- Vasovagal response which can include passing out
- Bleeding
- Pain

POTENTIAL CONTRAINDICATIONS

If you have any of the below, you may not qualify for treatment.

- Platelet disorders
- Low platelet count
- Known bleeding disorder
- Porphyria
- Systemic illness
- Sepsis
- Drepanocyanosis
- Cancer
- Use of Aspirin or Plavix within three (3) days of the procedure